Kingswood Rummage Sale – Produced by Stephanie Rissler

The Kingswood Rummage Sale has celebrated its 30th birthday and is the largest organized rummage in Sioux Falls. Entire streets are lined with sales; there are food vendors and some people set out ATMs. It's a great example of Re-use and Recycle. Thousands of people from surrounding areas (including IA and MN) attend the event each year. There were over 400 families participating in sale last year. Find out the history of the event, why do they go through all the trouble?

Bio-Control Agriculture – Produced by Brian Gevik

Department of AG is participating in a bio-control program which introduces insects to an area to help control different types of weeds etc. There is a dig in April for Purple Loosestrife roots. This is the start of raising the Galerucella (leaf feeding beetle). The bugs will be raised at the SD Human Service Center...appears they will also be working with Leafy Spurge and Knapweed.
